

WORD OF GOD SUNDAY

JANURARY 26, 2025

"I HOPE IN YOUR WORD" (PS 119:74)

Honoring the importance of Holy Scripture in our Catholic faith, let us participate in the following at home family prayer opportunities.

Enthroned Your Bible

This is a practice of placing a Bible in a prominent place in your home usually on your family prayer table. See the back for a special prayer service to

Read the Bible

Take time together to read the Bible in one of these fruitful ways:

- Daily Mass Readings
- Reflect on the Sunday Gospel
- Pick a book of the Bible

Get into God's Word!

Pray a Rosary

Pray a Scriptural Rosary which increases the ability to meditate on the mystery by reading a Bible verse between each Hail Mary.

Here is an easy prayer guide at - <https://www.scripturalrosary.org/>

At Home Bible Enthronement

READER: We begin in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. We gather together to enthrone the Holy Bible, the sacred book of our church. Since ancient times, the open book of Scripture has been enthroned at church councils and in cathedrals and parish churches. Since every Catholic home is a “domestic church,” we continue this tradition in the place of our ordinary lives, asking that this enthroned Bible remind us that God teaches, encourages, and challenges us through its open pages.

READER: Let us pray: Ever-living God, send your Holy Spirit so that this Bible may be for us a source of strength, comfort, inspiration, and guidance. Give us a deeper love for sacred Scripture, a desire to read and reflect upon it, and a longing to follow more faithfully the way of Jesus.

READER: Let us listen to Jesus as he offers us truth and freedom through his Word.

A Reading from the Gospel according to John: Jesus then said to those who believed in him, “If you remain in my word, you will truly be my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.” (John 8:31–32)

Pause for a moment of silent reflection.

READER: Let us all respond: “O God, teach us your word.”

ALL: O God, teach us your word.

READER: The psalmist prays to God: “Your word is a lamp for my feet, a light for my path” (Psalm 119:105). Show us how to travel through the dark places of life with the light of your word.

ALL: O God, teach us your word.

READER: The prophet Isaiah proclaims, “The grass withers, the flower wilts, but the word of our God stands forever” (Isaiah 40:8). Show us how to trust your word as our eternal source of life.

ALL: O God, teach us your word.

READER: In his parable of the sower, Jesus explains, “The sower sows the word” and “the ones that hear the word and accept it” are like rich soil that bears fruit (Mark 4:14, 20). Show us how to let the seed of your word take root within us and bear a rich harvest.

ALL: O God, teach us your word.

READER: The Letter of James urges us: “Be doers of the word and not hearers only” (James 1:22). Show us how to listen to your word and then put it into action.

ALL: O God, teach us your word.

READER: Let us each approach the Bible, one by one, place our hands on its open pages, and pray a silent prayer of personal commitment. Pray in your heart for each person as they approach the Bible.

READER: Let us pray: Come Holy Spirit, open our eyes, our ears, our minds, and our hearts to the living word of Scripture. May it always be the center of our home and our lives. As you have inspired that word with power and truth, now give us confidence to read the Bible in ways that form us into disciples. Fill our hearts and kindle in them the fire of your love, so that you may renew the face of the earth.

READER: Let us pray together as Jesus taught us.

ALL: Our Father, who art in heaven ...

READER: Let us offer one another a sign of Christ’s peace.
